In the Smorgon district the enemy artillery has developed a violent fire in some places. Southwest of Pinsk, in the region of the right bank of the Strumen, the enemy attacked the village of Komora, but was repulsed. The village of Novo Podcherevitchi, lying on the left bank of the Styr, remained in our hands after a series of engagements.

Near the village of Semikovtze, on the Stripa, our troops attacked the enemy and drove him to the river. With his back to the river, the enemy was partly annihilated by our fire, the remnants of his forces being drowned in their attempts to escape across the stream. More than 100 men killed or severely wounded were found on the scene of the action.

SAYS FRENCH SOCIALISTS LABOR UNDER ILLUSIONS

German Party Leader Denies There Is Chance of Teuton Military and Economic Collapse.

BERLIN, November 26, by wireless ocialist leader of the reichstag, who on everal occasions has expounded the attitude of his party in regard to terms of peace, has written a letter to the press, taking issue with the idea that the socialists of France are opposed to onquest of territory by the war. Dr. David says the French socialists by their own words prove they are in agreement with the other parties of France, and consider the object of the war to be the crushing of what they call German militarism and the annexation by France of Alsace and Lor-

"Dr. David states that the reason for these illusions is ignorance in France in regard to the real situation in Ger-many," says the Overseas News Agency in summarizing the letter. "This causes the French to believe that Germany will experience a military and economic The news agency quotes Dr. David as saying:

"This is the psychological reason why the French still cling to the idea of crushing Germany and conquering German territory. The only way to make the French desirous of peace is to destroy the physchological reason to destroy the vain hope that Germany will experience military and economic collapse. This ought to be understood by every one who is carnestly desirous. by every one who is earnestly desirous of peace."

CLEVELAND. In sweet remembrance of our boy, MELVIN LEONARD CLEVELAND, who left us November 26, 1996. We watch the stars of the evening sky
Grow bright as the shadows fall,
And carefully scan them one by one
Till the brightest of them all.
Sends sparkling light in the distant blue,
And we consecrate that star to you.
FATHER, MOTHER AND GRANDMA.

ONNOR. In loving remembrance of my brother, DANNY CONNOR, who died one year ago to day, November 26, 1914. Loved in life, in death remembered

HARDESTY. In sacred memory of our dear mother, FRANCES L. MASON HARDESTY, who entered into eternal rest eleven years ago today, November 26, 1994.

"She shall sleep, but not forever; There will be a glorious dawn, We shall meet to part, no, never, On the resurrection morn."

BY HER CHILDREN.

HOLMES. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear daughter and our loving sister, GRACIE ANN HOLMES, who departed this life four years ago today, November 26, 1911. She left us in the bloom of life, With a heart full of hore and love.

NELSON. In sad remembrance of my beloved son, WHAJAM J. NELSON, who departed this lift two years ago today, November 28, 1913. MOTHER.

WUNDER. In sad remembrance of my beloved husband, WILLIAM H. WUNDER, who died one year ago today, November 26, 1914. A noble man and Mason gone, And thus they vanish one by one Into a realin beyond the sun When life on earth is richly done. He loved to laugh and sing and play As happy as the garish day That films its sun-shipe through the hour-and thrills the blooming fields and flowers.
